Following Jesus in a Fallen World By Robert M Solomon

At the heart of Christian discipleship is the call to follow Jesus. This book examines in depth what is involved in following Jesus in a sinful and dysfunctional world by exploring 13 key spiritual disciplines. A section is devoted to each discipline; it begins with an introduction and contains chapters that explore various aspects. At the end of each chapter are questions for personal reflection or group discussion. Designed to help the reader to think more deeply and live more faithfully, this insightful and soul-nourishing book will strengthen your faith, encourage you in moments of despair and inspire you to live for God.

Editorial Review

Review

(This book) can be read like...Bonhoeffer's classic The Cost of Discipleship... I heartily commend (it) to anyone who is concerned not merely with the cost of discipleship, but its very character. --Rev Dr Ben Witherington III, Asbury Theological Seminary

Rich but simple, multi-faceted yet penetrating, spiritual and practical, this book is full of insights on Christian discipleship with lessons drawn from the Word, from the history of the Church and from the contemporary world. --Rev Dr Patrick Fung, OMF International
