Editorial Review

From Booklist

Colonel Derek Delborough has a dangerous mission to complete, and no time for ladies in need of a traveling companion. Deliah Duncannon doesn't care what Del says; his aunts promised he would escort her north to Humberside, and she intends to hold him to that promise. At first Del does his best to discourage Deliah, but the outspoken lady insists on accompanying him. It is only when their party is attacked by agents of the Black Cobra that everything changes. Now the only way Del can keep Deliah safe is by keeping her close to him. Laurens begins a fabulously entertaining new quartet—with links to her popular Cynster series—featuring four officers in the British army fighting a ruthless and brutal traitor known as the “Black Cobra.” By setting the opening scenes of The Untamed Bride in India, Laurens adds a dash of exotic spice to her always reliable mix of sexy romance and risky intrigue. --John Charles
