Third Reich Daggers 1933-1945: A Guide to Identification, Reproduction, Recognition and Values By J. A. Bowman

Joe Bowman has created a masterpiece for all collectors of German daggers made during the period of the Third Reich. The book provides both the novice and expert collector a comprehensive review of all daggers from military and civilian units including the army, navy, airforce para-military units, civil service, diplomatic corps and political groups. In addition reproductions and fakes are described. A rarity and value guide are also included. Numerous photographs and line drawings compliment a detailed text to facilitate the identification of the many variants of these daggers. This is the standard definitive book on the subject. Superb reference for any collector or enthusiast. A very desirable book and outstanding must-have addition to any collection.
