Un Hijo No Puede Morir (Spanish Edition) By Susana Roccatagliata

Este es un libro testimonial surgido tras la experiencia de la periodista chilena Susana Roccatagliata, quien sufrió la muerte de uno de sus hijos. Ese doloroso acontecimiento la motivó a fundar Renacer, una organización que reúne a padres que necesitan apoyo social y psicológico para reconstruir sus vidas tras la inmensa pérdida. Basándose en esa experiencia ella elaboró este maravilloso libro, que enlaza los testimonios de padres que han perdido hijos en diversas circunstancias con el consejo y la guía especializada para hacer del duelo un proceso positivo. Los testimonios acrecentarán el amor a la vida y la importancia de los afectos entre quienes tienen la fortuna de no haber sufrido el inimaginable dolor de perder un hijo. A través de sus líneas se refuerza la certeza de que la vida es, a pesar de todo, una hermosa experiencia de la que debemos aprovechar cada minuto junto a los que nos rodean. Este libro ha sido escrito para demostrar que quienes viven esta dura experiencia pueden recuperarse satisfactoriamente, volver a sonreír y convertirse en mejores personas ENGLISH DESCRIPTION

Editorial Review

From Publishers Weekly

After dealing with the death of her five-year-old son, Roccatagliata, a noted journalist and TV personality in Chile, set out to help herself and other parents in similar situations. The death of a child is one of the most painful and traumatic experiences that a parent can suffer. So deep is the grief and so uncertain the future that for many parents life ceases to exist for a period of time. Recovery is a long and lonely process understood only by others who have suffered similarly. Here, Roccatagliata compiles true stories and experiences of parents who have lost a child, either through long illness, accident, homicide, or suicide. The parents talk about their reactions to their child's death, their grieving processes, and the activities and measures that finally allowed them to recover. The last two chapters consist of brief summaries and tips of what helps and what doesn't help in the recovery process. Written in a personal style, this moving book will be helpful for those who have lost a child and for friends and relatives trying to help parents through the experience. Highly recommended for academic and public libraries, as well as for bookstores. Yolanda J. Cuesta, Cuesta MultiCultural Consulting, Sacramento, CA
