Action Reading FUNdamentals Home Phonics Tutorial Program By Jeanne Eller

Fundamentals is an intensive systematic phonics program that is designed to improve comprehension, spelling and penmanship. It is suitable for normal first graders and older students with poor reading skills. Parents can use it to teach young children the skill of reading before they enter school.

The FUNdamentals program was condensed from the highly successful classroom program called ACTION READING. It was developed by Dr. George Cureton almost 30 years ago. The Home Program is explicitly taught by Jeanie Eller, M.A., who has taught for 36 years to thousands of children and adults.

About the Author

Nationally known Educator and Literacy Consultant, Jeanie Eller provides the solution to America's illiteracy problem with the Action Reading program. The National Reading Reform Foundation has recognized Jeanie Eller for having one of the best methods available for teaching people to read.

Jeanie, who holds a Master's Degree in Education, has been developing her successful method of teaching people to read since 1964. She has taught kindergarten through graduate-level university classes. Her teaching career has included traditional school facilities, diverse locations like the untamed Alaskan wilderness, a one room school house in Blackwater, Arizona and accredited universities. Currently, she works as a literacy consultant, training parents and teachers all over the Nation.

She has been a featured guest with numerous appearances on the G. Gordon Liddy, Mary Matalin and Ollie North radio shows. The successful Action Reading program was spotlighted when Jeanie taught illiterate adults to read in two weeks for the Oprah television show.

The path to reversing the reading deficiencies of this country has found Jeanie Eller victorious in confrontations with legislative bodies and textbook vendors. She is serious about the future of our children and our society. Jeanie helped draft current legislation to recommend the use of phonics in the Arizona School System. She contributed to literacy legislation advancements in Alabama, Alaska Nevada and Oregon. Recently, Jeanie Eller was asked to provide information used for the new Federal Reading Excellence Act.

Her successful programs have been implemented and have reversed poor scholastic standards in schools and homes all over the Nation.

Currently, her educational methods are resulting in profound success in over 300 classrooms of the Montgomery, Alabama school system. The unique Montgomery program was authorized by a school system without funding, it was funded with grants from local businesses and it has evolved beyond the typical classroom to include mobile classes in urban areas where children need a little extra help.

Jeanie Eller is affecting positive change in our society.
