From the Back Cover

Workers' compensation insurance--in plain English!

State-mandated workers' compensation insurance is soaring to unaffordable heights with countless confusing rules and regulations. But at last, there is a guiding light to help you sort through the legalese and find ways to cut your costs.

Author Edward J. Priz has reclaimed more than ten million dollars of workers' compensation overcharges for his clients. Priz now reveals money-saving tactics as he explains the confusing aspects of workers' compensation insurance in layman's terms.

Cut costs now by:

- Understanding your policy and what it covers
- Knowing how premiums are calculated
- Comprehending the classification system
- Staying on top of each state's unique regulations
- Controlling the audit process
- Evaluating agents and insurers, then selecting the best one for you
- Considering alternative approaches to traditional insurance

In today's turbulent economic environment, every dollar counts. This guide equips you with the most up-to-date strategies to keep your business afloat as you get out from under the ever-growing cost of workers' compensation insurance.
