Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

After moving from Boston with her mom, Reagan Mercer is just trying to fit in at her new high school. By winning a coveted spot on the cheerleading squad, she accidentally bumps popularity poster child Kendra Farnsworth from the lineup and makes a new A-list enemy.

So much for blending in.

Things begin to look up after Kendra decides to play nice and make Reagan a part of her elite crew. But Reagan finds that acceptance has a steep price, as her new friends make life miserable for anyone who gets in their way. And after a tragic accident and party gone too far, can Reagan still make the right choice?
