Jesus in the Gospels and Acts: New Edition-Introducing the New Testament

By Daniel J. Scholz

Jesus in the Gospels and Acts: Introducing the New Testament is a new edition of a popular text that has filled a market niche for books providing an easily accessible overview of Jesus in the New Testament. Content, layout, graphics, and reference updates enhance the appeal and educational value while making the resources more accessible. Jesus in the Gospels and Acts explores issues of authorship, historicity, culture, and theology through the perspectives of the four Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles, and the extracanonical gospels. Structured for a semester course, the book offers summaries, review questions, and recommended readings that make it ideal for classroom settings. Charts, maps, sidebars, and images offer the visual variety and graphic support essential to visual learners.

Editorial Review

Review

"Dr. Scholz's book fills a serious lacuna in the field, namely, a solid, up-to-date examination of the gospels in their historical and literary context that, at the same time, is accessible to undergraduates of every age and creed. Reflecting the mainstream of modern biblical studies, this new edition is invaluable for any teacher struggling to give students a richer, more profound understanding of the multiple portraits of Jesus, within and beyond the canon, and their relevance for contemporary faith. This text, paired with Dr. Scholz's volume on Paul, serves as the perfect guide for an introductory course on the New Testament."

--Lance Richey, University of Saint Francis

"Dan Scholz offers a thoroughly readable and informative introduction to the Gospels and Acts. . . . Each chapter on the Gospels and Acts begins with considerations about [a] book's historical setting (author, dating, sources, and audience) and moves to significant exploration of how the story is told. . . . The book is easy to navigate and contains frequent sidebars and helpful chapter conclusions with additional information to enhance the reading experience."

--Jeannine K. Brown, Bethel Seminary

About the Author

Daniel J. Scholz has a PhD in biblical theology from Marquette University and serves as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Cardinal Stritch University in Milwaukee.
